REPORT NO.

1. On 4 March 1951 the Chinese Communist Government called CHU Te, LIN Piao, LIU Po-cheng, PENG Te-huai, NIEN Jung-chen and CHOU En-lai to a meeting in Peiping at which the following decisions were made:
 - a. To carry on the war in Korea.
 - b. To replace the 4 Field Army in Korea with men drawn from the 1, 2 and 3 Field Armies.
 - c. To allot coast defense of South China to the 4 Field Army.
 - d. To concentrate and use the 3 Field Army to launch an attack against Chinmen to frustrate any possible Nationalist counter-offensive.
2. There are indications that troops are still being moved to Manchuria from the south via Tientsin. On 17 March a train carrying troops, artillery and mules was observed midway between Peiping and Tientsin. No precise details are available except that there appeared to be quite a number of small field pieces.
3. According to Soviet military adviser I. Daizhev (sic), the USSR is preparing for a second phase of the war in Korea. It is organizing an international volunteer force consisting largely of Mongolians, who are about 2,000 (sic) strong and have modern equipment. If it is necessary to use these troops, with sufficient air support they could make a decisive, heavy stroke in Korea.
